TRAVEL NEWS

From Pride Rock panoramas to sensational South Beach sunsets, here are the destinations that honeymooners' dreams are made of

In your wildest dreams

For a Disney-inspired honeymoon – minus the castle – head to the lush savannah that inspired The Lion King with The Safari Collection. New for summer, this privately-guided trip will see you visit four stunning spots over seven nights, accompanied by Robert Carr-Hartley, who was involved in making the film. As well as getting up close to wildlife, you'll have the chance to soak up Pride Rock's panoramas. From £8,309 per couple; thesafaricollection.com

MIAMI SPICE

Asia meets art deco at The Setai in Florida, a glistening five-star retreat that's situated in the heart of Miami's South Beach. Having just been named within the Forbes Travel Guide for the fifth year running, it's little wonder honeymooners continue to flock to this striking idyll; expect sweeping ocean-front views, sparkling azure pools, pagoda-style structures and sublime oriental cuisine. We're there already... From £406 per night; thesetaihotels.com

Glad I trashed the wedding

Tempted to parasail or jet ski in your gown? Kandima Maldives is now challenging fearless brides with its Let's Go Crazy and Trash That Dress package, available to couples who wed there. Extras include a couple's massage, bottle of champagne and cocktail session. From £1,148 per couple; kandima.com
